

This block contains four blank musical staves, each consisting of five horizontal lines. The staves are arranged vertically with a consistent gap between them, providing space for musical notation.

This block contains a second set of four blank musical staves, identical in format to the first set, consisting of five horizontal lines per staff.

This block contains a third set of four blank musical staves, identical in format to the previous sets, consisting of five horizontal lines per staff.