

This block contains three blank musical staves. Each staff is represented by a set of five horizontal lines. The staves are arranged vertically with a small gap between each one.

This block contains three blank musical staves, identical in format to the first block, consisting of three vertically stacked staves of five lines each.

This block contains three blank musical staves, identical in format to the previous blocks, consisting of three vertically stacked staves of five lines each.

This block contains three blank musical staves, identical in format to the previous blocks, consisting of three vertically stacked staves of five lines each.